

Activities Conducted by IGS Aurangabad Chapter during July-September 2022

1. An expert lecture of Er. Ravindra Bansode was conducted on Engineer's Day on 15/09/2022. Er. Ravindra Bansode is Alumni of Civil Engineering Department, MIT at UG as well as PG. He has completed his degree in Civil Engineering from MIT in 2010 and ME Civil Structure in 2015.

He is working as Consulting Engineer and the name of his firm is S. R. Consultants, Aurangabad.

He explained the Design of Shri. Chatrapati Shivaji Maharaj Statue constructed at Kranti Chowk, Aurangabad. He also explained different problems involved in the design of this statue and how he has solved the same. Also, he explained about the dynamic analysis and design involved in the design of this statue.

2. An expert lecture of Er. Atul Nikam, Civil Engineer and Govt. Contractor, Aurangabad was conducted on 23/09/2022. Er. Atul Nikam is Alumni of Civil Engineering Department, MIT at UG. He has discussed the current opportunities for Civil Engineer in Government Sector and given the guidelines for Startup for own consultancy and contractor ship. He discussed the challenges faced and overcome by him during his career till date. He also shared the experiences by showing his completed major projects during his career. Students have enlightened with his technical and professional skills.

Dr. Manish Dixit, Dr. Uttam Kalwane, Dr. Rashmita Shrinivasan ,and faculty members of Civil Engineering and students were present during this Expert Lecture.

CONVENOR

Dr. Manish S. Dixit

Hon. Secretary,

IGS Aurangabad Chapter